Black theatre of love Violet dances cast their blood The moon gave me flowers For funerals to come

12 shapes bow before her I am still one of them 12 morbid ways to die Her beauty scares me

I'm falling deeper No more pain to feel now Touch the silence Afraid of hell

Black theatre of love Violet dances drink my blood The moon gave me flowers For funerals to come

I cannot breathe
I am losing life
The moon paints the skyline blue
She died so beautiful
