

Ain't So Sweet

Katie Armiger

Hey boy, it's me
Your sweet little everything
Who's always been here
Standing by your side and I've done it with a smile
And I've held my tongue
Even played along when I know your wrong
But this time, I'm not sunshine and roses
No this time I'm giving you a piece of my mind

Don't bother knocking on my door
Don't even call me on my phone
Your sweet little everything
Ain't so sweet anymore
I know it kills you to believe
You're bringing out the worst in me
That girl you knew before
Ain't so sweet anymore
Ain't so sweet anymore

Your t-shirt, your guitar
You'll find them in your front yard
Next to all your lies and every single time that you never apologized
Sorry but I can't show the coating So sorry but it's really really over

Don't bother knocking on my door
Don't even call me on my phone
Your sweet little everything
Ain't so sweet anymore
I know it kills you to believe
Your bringing out the worst in me
That girl you knew before
Ain't so sweet anymore
Ain't so sweet anymore

Don't bother knocking on my door
Don't even call me on my phone
Your sweet little everything
Ain't so sweet anymore
I know it kills you to believe
Your bringing out the worst in me
That girl you knew before
Ain't so sweet, ain't so sweet anymore
Ain't so sweet anymore
Oh no, oh no
Ain't so sweet anymore
