When You Taught Me How to Dance

Katie Melua

When you taught me how to dance years ago with misty eyes every step and silent glance every move a sweet surprise. Someone must have taught you well to beguile and to entrance for that night you cast your spell and you taught me how to dance.

Like reflections in the lake I recall what went before as I give alone to take and will be alone no more.

Other lights may light my way I may even find romance but I won't forget that night when you taught me how to dance.

Cold winds blow but up on those hills you find me and I know you're walking 'round behind me.

When you taught me how to dance years ago with misty eyes every step and silent glance every move a sweet surprise. Someone must have taught you well to beguile and to entrance for that night you cast your spell and you taught me how to dance.
