

First Time

The Kelly Family

Today for the first time
For the first time you took my hand.
Today for the first time
Touched a warm hand.
What a lucky girl!

You opened your heart and you gave it to me
Don't tell me that you don't love me.
You opened your heart and you gave it to me
Don't tell me now you don't need me.

For me, for me
You're the one,
You're the world.

Someone is anyone there
My body needs warm
It's a mad mad world.

Today for the first time
I heard my heart stop
As he flew away.

Open your heart and give it to me
And don't tell me that you don't love me.
Open your heart and give it to me
And don't tell me that you don't need me.

Sometimes I just fall and break
Sometimes it you over flows.
I can take no more,
I can take no more, no more.

Open your heart...

Tonight for the first time
All the stars shine
But you're the brightest one:
My love.
