

Lonely

you don't have to be lonely

no, it seems ugly only in this world of pain

Sadness

you don't have to feel sadness

no, it seems only madness in this world of pain

no, it seems ugly only in this world of pain

Weary

you don't have to be weary

no, it seems only dreary in this world of pain

Fearful

you don't have to be fearful

no, it seems only tearful in this world of pain

no, it seems only tearful in this world of pain

Dan Kelly:

Let yourself love deeply, someone or something worth while with your whole heart, to the very end and I promise you you'll never ever be alone again

Lonely

no, it seems ugly only in this world of pain

Lonely
