

Butterfly Cry

Kerli

Did I hurt you
Did I ever made you bleed inside
Did I kill you
I didn't mean to make you hide yourself
Find you in you, beautiful
Do not grow the seeds of pain in you
Goodbye

Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
And you just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
And you just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Oh, 'cause the world is wonderful

I have been there
I used to believe there was no light
But I found out
Oh, life is far too short to fight
Loose yourself, let go of your pain
Taste the air you breathe and kiss the sky
Goodbye

Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
And you just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Oh, 'cause the world is wonderful

Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Oh, 'cause the world is wonderful

And yeah, because the world is wonderful
