

End of the World

Kerli

Look at me I'm standing here before you with my heart
On my sleeve
All you gotta do for me is open up your mind
And receive

I'm gonna tear away the walls around the system
I'm gonna get inside your head and make you listen
I'm the moon, I'm the stars, I'm the sun
From the end of the world, I come

I am here to shine the light into the darkness
I am here to pick a fight with all the loveless
Now the battle of the damned has begun
From the end of the world, I come

Did you ever wonder what would happen if you spoke
Without fear
And have you ever tried to get exactly what you want
Without causing tears

I'm gonna tear away the walls around the system
I'm gonna get inside your head and make you listen
I'm the moon, I'm the stars, I'm the sun
From the end of the world, I come

I am here to shine the light into the darkness
I am here to pick a fight with all the loveless
Now the battle of the damned has begun
From the end of the world, I come

Please believe in me
I'm here
A river to the sea
And I'll stay
If you want me too
And one day
My vision will be true

I'm gonna tear away the walls around the system
I'm gonna get inside your head and make you listen
I'm the moon, I'm the stars, I'm the sun
From the end of the world, I come

I am here to shine the light into the darkness
I am here to pick a fight with all the loveless
Now the battle of the damned has begun
From the end of the world, I come
From the end of the world, I come
From the end of the world, I come
