Killerwave

Kerli

Have you ever been left alone
You're so far away from home
And no one really believes you'll cope
Hear me

All the streets and flashing lights
The big city gets mad tonight
I don't know if it's wrong or right
Hear me

Realize it
Ain't gonna change me
Ain't gonna hurt me
I will not break, no

Too much time
That I've spent to get this
And deal with that shit
I will not break, no

Going out today, and nothing feels the same
I'm like a killer wave, I'm not gonna behave
I'm going out today, and no one's gonna say
I'll live my life afraid, so let me hear the bass

Have you ever believed a lie
That kinda shakes you up inside
This town'll eat you up alive
Believe me

But I don't bend and I don't break
I'll never make the same mistake
I got the world to overtake
Hear me

Realize it
Ain't gonna change you
Ain't gonna hurt you
You will not break, no

Going out today, and nothing feels the same
I'm like a killer wave, I'm not gonna behave
I'm going out today, and no one's gonna say
I'll live my life afraid, so can't you hear me

Going out today, and nothing feels the same
I'm like a killer wave, I'm not gonna behave
I'm going out today, and no one's gonna say
I'll live my life afraid, so let me hear the bass
