

Now Is Not Enough

Kerli

I was weak and powerless
I tasted
Oh so well
All your games and emptiness
You choked me
You never cared
Hear me out
I said, Make me shout
Get down and beg
Now it's your turn to be scared
You'll take it
You'll like it

Hear me out
Hear me out before you're
Walking out that door
You see it now
But Now Is Not Enough
You're not worth fightin' for

Your helplessness
You're screamin'
But no one hears
Be prepared
To be possessed
You'll take it
You'll like it

Hear me out
Hear me out before you're
Walking out that door
You see it now
But Now Is Not Enough
You're not worth fightin' for
And hear me out
And hear me out
Before you're
Walking out that door
You see it now
But Now Is Not Enough
You're not worth fightin' for

Enjoy
Your helplessness
You're screaming
(But no...)
But no one hears
Be prepared
To be possessed
You're screaming
But no one hears

Hear me out
Walking out that door
You see it now

You're not worth fightin' for
And hear me out
Before you're
Walking out that door
You see it now
