

Now Or Never

Kerli

I guess it's now or never,
last scene on the shore
so messed up together.
I can't seem to let go.

We're pushing, pulling through.
We're crushing, burning and you're the
all the lies but can we tear it down?

More to fear, can't get worse.
We both lost the war or worse.
Let's go from here and make you work.
Try forget - how much it hurts?
If I am the one, it is now or never.

To see right gets better.
Silence is so loud.
I can't come on each other
if we can't be each others.

We're pushing, pulling through.
We're crushing, burning and you're the
all the lies but can we tear it down?

More to fear, can't get worse.
We both lost the war or worse.
Let's go from here and make you work.
Try forget - how much it hurts?
If I am the one, it is now or never.
