Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Ooh, ha
Huhh ouuh
Uh huh, uh huh, uhh huh

Would you ever take your love away?
A question that I'm asking everyday
'Cause nothing in this life is ever free
So baby can you tell me why it's me you love?
Why you give so much
Your touch is like a signature

You signed your name on my heart
And it's sincerely yours
You signed your name on my heart
You left a permanent mark on my heart

Usually they take from me then leave
But baby all you do is give me what I need
Now I'm crying and it's 'cause now I can't believe
I found love , I finally have peace
Baby you've given me a better view (Ohh)
I'm looking to spend my whole life with you (With you)
And I promise that I'll give my all to you
Oooh baby tell me why it's me you love ?
Tell me why you give so much
Your touch is like ah signature

You signed your name on my heart (My heart)
And it's sincerely yours
You signed your name on my heart (My heart)
You left a permanent mark on my heart

I never thought (Never thought)
I'll ever find someone
Who I can trust completely
But you proved to me it's not a dream (Proved to me)
Now I believe, that I was made for your love
Oh oh oh, oh oh ooh

Baby you signed your name on my heart (My heart)
And it's sincerely yours
You signed your name on my heart (My heart)
You left a permanent mark on my heart
Oh , yes you did
Oh, es you did
Oooh , yes you did you signed on my heart
You left a permanent mark on my, my heart
