

Dead Girl Walking

Kidneythieves

Dead Girl walking and on display
Wrapped in a cocoon of your own cliché
Dead Girl walking a fall from grace
Wrapped in a cocoon of your own cliché
Dead Girl walking it's such a shame
I saw it coming from miles away

It's all so disposable
There's nothing here for you take and no one here for you to play
It's all so disposable
And if we get what we deserve then you deserve it, Dead Girl.

Dead Girl walking, the wasted days
Trapped in a cocoon and can't fly away
Dead Girl walking, the beauty fades
I see it coming-and the future is a lonely place
(I tried and you betrayed)

It's all so disposable
There's nothing here for you take and no one here for you to play
It's all so disposable
And if we get what we deserve then you deserve it, Dead Girl.

Oh, you're just a broken one
Wasted all that you've become
You're just a broken one, and I've given up on you Girl.

You're so disposable
There's nothing here for you take and no one here for you to play
It's all so disposable
And if we get what we deserve then you deserve it, Dead Girl
It's all so disposable - you're just a broken one
(and if we get what we deserve...)
It's all so disposable
(wasted all you could become)
And if we get what we deserve then you deserve it, Dead Girl.
