

Naked

Kimberly Caldwell

Look at me, standing here naked, imperfectly
Hoping and sharing what's under the truth
And me tearing these layers for you to see.

Talk to me, you'll understand
That there's more to me, reveal who I am,
When the make-up comes off
When the secrets are lost,
Stripped away, stripped away.

Naked, right in front of you waiting,
What do I have to do to make you see
When you're staring right at me?
Here I am, naked.

Cover me, feel like they're staring,
But destiny doesn't care what I'm wearing.
The truth is exposed,
Can you see through my soul?
Stripped away (right in front of you)
Stripped away (right in front of you)

Naked, right in front of you waiting,
What do I have to do to make you see
When you're staring right at me?
Here I am, naked.

You had me right down to the heartbeat (beating)
Waiting for you to see

Naked, right in front of you waiting,
What do I have to do to make you see
When you're staring right at me?
Here I am,
Naked, right in front of you waiting,
What do I have to do to make you see
When you're staring right at me?
Here I am, naked.
What do I have to do to make you see
When you're staring right at me?
Here I am, naked
