

Holy Curtain

Kingdom Come

I have heard so many stories
Spreading all over the world

I have heard so many glories
All of them claiming the pearl

Close together, still so far apart
Lonely feathers, looking for true love

Promises we all have made
From the cradle back to our grave

Asking why, a waste of our time
That's the way it goes never mind

Close together, still so far apart
Lonely feathers, looking for true love

So much praying, who knows what will come
Holy curtain, cover what we've done
