

Living Dynamite

Kingdom Come

He's a little guy
With a little mind
Acting very shy

Avoiding any turns
In his little world
Never crossed a line
Would have never known

Now I found out why
He kept cool inside
Living dynamite

Keep away the wick
For his atom stick
He ain't throwing bricks
He's the end of time

Having little thoughts
Sick and very odd
Growing deep inside

He's a lonely man
With a deadly plan
Never held a hand
Never wondered why
He's a friendly guy
With a little smile
Buying precious time

Paradise in mind
Think he'll always shine
He don't care for you
Taking many lifes
