

So Unreal

Kingdom Come

She's no taker
No heartbreaker
She's a little girl

Caught in shyness
Silent kindness
Such a special pearl

She plays no games
Don't care for fame
She knows better ways

She's seen the darkness
Touched the madness
Kept her given grace

Never will I know her
Never will I own her

She's the queen in all my play cards
Got a place for good in my heart

Hardly talking
She keeps walking
I can feel her smile

So unreal
She's melting steel
Calm and never wild
