Beneath The Surface

Degrade me, my purpose Bury me beneath the surface I'm scratching, I'm clawing Trying hard to make them pay

Can't stand me, beside me Kid you not, your kiss sure killed me The cold of my barrel Never sees the light of day

Call me, call me, you could only hurt the story Call me, call me, I'll be there to shine a light

The smell on the speakers Sweaty ballroom dancing fever They gather in numbers Ever for a closer view

The cease fire the weaker Hair so red I couldn't keep her The dogs hound the neighbours Everything was blown away

Call me, call me, you could only hurt the story Call me, call me, I'll be there to shine a light

Machine, machines, point me to the nearest party You'll see, you'll see, baby it's the only way

Call me, call me, you could only Call me, call me, I'll be there

Machines, machines, point me to the nearest party
