

Falling Down

Kittie

In between life and death
I need a place where I can rest
Not black nor white
I've tried my best

Always gray is where I hide
I never want to choose a side
Not dark nor light
Always unsatisfied

I've fallen down again
I've fallen down again

In the midst of pain and pride
In solemn center I confide
The rising tide
Swallows the light (swallows the light!)

I've fallen down again
I've fallen down again

I've fallen down again
I've fallen down again
And...
I've fallen down again
I've fallen down again

I've fallen down again...
I've fallen down again...
