

Pseudocide

KMFDM

burned out and hollow always open up swallow in one out the other forever duck and cover

erase now, turn back the clock put an end to never ending suck
sever through the other side
m.i.a., that's ok
goodbye day, hello night
welcome to the afterlife

ride the rail gagged and tethered run out of town tarred and feathered time has come to shift the pace putting on a dead man's face erase one's self, reinvent the wheel astride the guillotine swilling gasoline

out of mind, out of sight
m.i.a., that's ok
wipe the blade, start over a new slate
pseudocide

countless bones in the closet useless cog in a machine shameless legacy of fuck ups brainless shadow of what could have been
