AWake he said sleep no more You're dreaming i'm gonna show you the door Come on and let me show the way

They march on through the dust Believe their leader they can trust In all the noise they lose the way

But what can move so strong Is it just simply to belong Or do we love to be blind

And i fell down again
I closed my eyes i'm not sure when
And now i dream to an open end

Awake he said sleep no more You're dreaming i'm gonna show you the door Come on and let me show the way

Seven men pass me by And all but one of them will die And he's the one who knows the way

(but) what holds on so tight Why is it so hard to fight How do we open our eyes

And i fell down again
I closed my eyes i'm not sure when
And now i dream to an open end

Awake he said ...
And i fell down ...
