Mr. Nice Guy

No more Mr. Nice Guy, You know I'm wishing you were leaving, Thinking everybody wants you, Your nose is itching and you're so slow, To tell me everything about you, But I already know you, Don't believe in things that don't believe in you, Believe in you, Don't believe in things that don't believe in you, Believe in you,

You want to spend some time together, Suspended like a feather, But you're acting like a nico, Playing with your ego, Always trying with the right crowd, Never alone turn it up loud,

Don't believe in things that don't believe in you, Believe in you, Don't believe in things that don't believe in you, Believe in you
