

I'll Take Any Chance I Can With You

Kris Kristofferson

We know better it was bitter, baby
Watching love become a lie
Now we're coming to that point of no returning
Do you really want to try ?

Are the reasons or the chances any better than before ?
Are we into something more than we imagined
That we really can't afford ?
Does it matter anymore ?

You're the biggest gamble that I've ever tried to win
Maybe more than I can stand to lose
But girl I never thought I'd ever feel this good again
More than I could dream of coming true
I'll take any chance I can with you.
