The Bigger the Fool, the Harder the Fall

Kris Kristofferson

Hey, doesn't it still look easy as it did to you Hey, wasn't it true, after all I couldn't help myself, girl And I can't blame you The bigger the fool, the harder the fall

Living on old illusions, and some make believe That mattered to me, most of all Closing my eyes to changes I've refused to see The bigger the fool, the harder the fall

Somewhere in your future, on the far side of your world You might read my writing on the wall And think of the easy dreamer who believed in you The bigger the fool, the harder the fall.

If someday you wake up in a world that's turned on you And nobody answers when you call Hey, think of the easy dreamer who believes in you The bigger the fool, the harder the fall

Think of the crazy dreamer who believes in you The bigger the fool, the harder the fall.
