

Falling Rain

Labyrinth

Deep in my heart I would like find
A place for love
It's not so easy as I'd like

And all this time, all this time we lost
Just to follow a dream
Nothing will remain

The rain is falling down onto me
Falling down as a silent cry

Now I'm staring at the mirror and
Inside my heart
I can find my inner soul
Now I'm staring at the mirror and
Inside my eyes
Nothing but a little tear

It's not our way and I think
You gotta find one
(A little angel starts to cry

This falling rain is telling now
A love is dying
But it will live into your heart

The rain is falling down to me
Falling down as a silent cry
Now I'm staring at the mirror and
Inside my heart
I can find my inner soul
Now I'm staring at the mirror and
Inside my eyes
Nothing but a little tear

Deep in my heart I would like find
A place for love
And all this time
All the time we lost
Just to follow a dream

Now I'm staring at the mirror and
Inside my heart
I can find my inner soul
Now I'm staring at the mirror and
Inside my eyes
Nothing but a little tear

Now I'm staring at the mirror and
Inside my heart
I can find my inner soul
Now I'm staring in the mirror and
All around
Nothing but falling rain
