

I Don't Believe in Tomorrow

Lacuna Coil

This might long my face is burnning
I cannot keep it all long enough
I want to hide myself in something taht's bigger than me
That I cannot control

I wanted you to help protect me
To keep me saved in my saturday
Confronting the evidence to run away from it
Just when I needed you more

I want to say it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
The storm is raging now
Cause I lost my faith in you
I want to have it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
Avenge what I konw now
Cause I have no faith in you

I will rise from the ashes again
You can call me up
But I still the same
So don't even try to figure me out
This don't rents

Oh, if I'm to complicated leave now
Cause I could easily be without you
I bury all the noise
Because I just fell like I'm trusting more

I want to say it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
The storm is raging now
Cause I lost my faith in you
I want to have it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
Avenge what I konw now
Cause I have no faith in you

I avenge you, I avenge you
I avenge you, I avenge you
I avenge you, I avenge you
I avenge you, I avenge you

I want to say it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
The storm is raging now
Cause I lost my faith in you
I want to have it now
Cause I don't believe in tomorrow
Avenge what I konw now
Cause I have no faith in you
