

Here I Go Again

Laleh

Here I go again, it's time for me to fade away.
I'm out of here I go again, I've lost the game
And no one is to blame.
Here I go again, it's time for me to face the world.

I'm out of here I go again,
I've lost the game.
And no one is to blame. Move on,
believe it.
And you'll find out this is the time of your life.
Move on, believe it, You can be sure this is the ride of your life

Here I go again, Here I go again, Here I go again
And no one is to blame, but me.

Verse 2:

It's time again to let the storm
rise and be waiting here with great expectations,
You call it what you want but for now be standing tall and I'm here to get it all so give me your best shot or let me go.

Here I go again, Here I go again,
Here I go again And no one is to blame, but you.
