Skipping time and life is all aglow
Everything much brighter than before
In my heart a fire burns, oh so strong
And I know this time it's here to stay

Oh, my ears hear every sound
And now my eyes can see
I can leap and not look down
This earth has greater arms to hold me
This earth has greater arms to hold me

Breathing fresh I feel a new day dawn
Heaven's open precious life reborn
Knowing from much deeper than the mind
Nothing's two and everything is one

Oh my ears hear every sound
And now my eyes can see
I can leap and not look down
This earth has greater arms to hold me
This earth has greater arms to hold me

My ears hear every sound
And now my eyes can see
Oh I can leap and not look down
This earth has greater arms to hold me
This earth has greater arms to hold me

This earth has greater arms to hold me
This earth has greater arms to hold me
