

Is There Anybody Out There?

Laura Mvula

It's too late for me now
Can't be undone in me now
Gone down deep within me now
Come take it out on me now

I was young and free then
Like a child I loved to love then
Now there's nothing left in me but fear
I can see the end is all near

This is the end before it's even started
I can't survive this pain, I'm brokenhearted

I believed in you then
You believed in me then
You took everything I had and more
Each day I live to give you my all

This is the end before it's even started
I can't survive this pain, I'm brokenhearted

Is there anybody out there
Who knows
Is there anybody out there
I won't make it out here alone

Keep on judging to forever
Take a good thing, let it start
Keep on judging to forever
Take a good thing, let it start

Is there anybody out there
Who knows
Is there anybody out there
I won't make it out here alone
Is there anybody out there
Who knows
Is there anybody out there
I won't make out here alone

Keep on judging to forever
Is there anybody out there
Is there anybody out there
I won't make it out here alone
