

Neurotic Society

Lauryn Hill

We're living in a joke time, metaphorical coke time Commerce and girl men, run the whole world man
bold ,drunken debauchery...
old world brutality
Cold world kills softly,
whole world run savagely
greedy men and pride fiends
program TV screens
Quick scam and drag queens, real lifes been blasphemed Think twice it's past dreams, crime if you ask clean Quick fast, the poison has entered the blood stream Psychological master, consequences are tragedy Mythological characters, men and women as parody Superficial vanity, borderline insanity
Out of order humanity, crime committed so passively/randomly Desperados and casualties, corporations want batteries Explanations and strategies, domination and mastery owned, jonesing and bankrupt, grown people so corrupt vice lords and yellow men junkies of popularity Culture so in dependence, vultures scavenge reality Past feeling depravity
decaying social cavity
Preying on human ignorance, popular immorality Symptoms of diseased head, population misled Self indulgent past dead, absence of God head Pimps, pushers and harlotry
Nepotism, no artistry
Despotism and piracy
Desperation, dishonesty
Business decision policy more money lesser quality Inflated global ego, imitating reality Pseudo psycho new pharaoh, poisonous bow and arrows Hypo critics on salary, idle hands devils agency Predisposed to complacency, jealousy and audacity Contagious social gluttony, stages of mass malignancy epidemic deception, generation in atrophy Glam life in debt, scam life and editors Byproducts of neglect children hiding from creditors Absence of self respect, phony scared of competitors Lifestyle of luxury at someone's expense Sensitive children, used up as sacrifice
Blinded to consequences, smoked up in dope pipes Ecstasy, fast life, recklessly pass life
Narcotics and cash fight, this neurotic society Benefactors turned actors, addictions triple captors Experience manufactured in this neurotic, toxic society

It's like post-war, they looking for the communists or who the marxist is 10,000 pictures on Facebook, that's like the pot callin' the kettle narcissi
st
Come on really, saying the devil, but you're the chief arsonist Hypocrites can't even see their own part in this
No reflection, vampire paradigm
No introspection
this star that star rants has a break down

3 months before pure obsession, picture can't take down Children, it's a shake down, they're just looking for a sacrifice
They been doing this since before Bobby Darin sang Mack the Knife Before James Dean's car did a jack knife perhaps because they lack life or lack guts Never confuse the head with the butt
Opinions are like assholes and most of 'em stink
I was told by a woman, so rethink, don't let these motherfuckers ever lead y ou to drink
Lead you to doubt, lead you to fall
Get up, stand up, (and) cast Lucifer out Shake it up baby, watch them twist and then shout Insecure assholes just looking for a ticket To ride on somebody like the Pick It,
it's fucking wicked, shame on a 'nuh'
This neurotic toxic society

Sick psycho psychology in desperate need of psychiatry Exorcisms, sobriety, forcing social lobotomies
People stuck in dichotomies, pseudo-sicko anxieties Serial criminals dressed in variety Social transvestism, subliminal dressed up as piety Transference projections like Cartesian images Robbing innocence, stealing away inheritance Quiet victims with no defense betrayed over dollars and cents Maladjusted and ignorant
mal addiction and dissonance
Too much addiction, no consciousness
Don't trust it, the cosmology's busted Broken it returns to the dust, it stinks of corruption Oppression, deceit, abuse and repeat
They don't feel complete unless they're misleading/ robbing the sheep Man is not a product if you call it that then stop it this neurotic godless society
