

Good Man

Lee Brice

Just like you know your southern stars always gonna come back out

I'll give you everything I got like nobody else you found
Open up your heart, open up your eyes, baby listen to the sound
Of my voice when I tell you girl don't worry I ain't ever gonna let you down

I wanna show you where I'm from, take you for a ride on a long dirt road

Let you see, let you taste, let you feel, just a little bit of that moonshine glow

I won't hold you down, or hold you back, but I won't let you go
This ain't no one night show

I heard you lookin' for a good man
To hold you with some good hands
Somebody get you through the bad land
So you lookin' for a good man
Well you lookin' at a good man now

I'll climb your tower, slay your dragons, fight your battles girl

I'll take a bullet for ya, I'll take on the whole world
Don't even worry bout it, I like it yeah, I gotcha girl
C'mon won't cha give it a whirl

I heard you lookin' for a good man
To hold you with some good hands
Somebody get you through the bad land
So you lookin' for a good man
Well you lookin' at a good man now, ain't cha girl...

I ain't no bad boy, I used to be but I ain't no more
(I ain't no bad boy, I ain't no bad boy)
I ain't no bad boy, I used to be but I ain't no more
(I ain't no bad boy)

So you lookin' for a good man
To hold you with some good hands
Trust me I'll get you through the bad land
So you lookin' for a good man
Well you you lookin' at a good man now, ain't cha girl...

Yeah ya lookin at a good man now aint cha girl
