

I Don't Smoke

Lee Brice

I don't smoke 'cause I never get high enough to get over you
(Alright baby, hey)

Mmm, a-have you ever been down, so low you can't sit up Something dragging you around, but you still ain't had enough Oh, you know it, something, somewhere, but you still can't feel the sun
You're on the edge, a half a step away from coming undone

I don't drink, 'cause I know my mind and every time I do
I just think about what you're doing and who you're doing it to
I don't take no pills to kill the pain 'cause they ain't never told me the truth
I don't smoke 'cause I never get high enough to get over you

(Hey) I was the life of the party, yeah, you could count on me
But this a good time Charlie, ain't half the party I used to

I don't drink, 'cause I know my mind and every time I do
I just think about what you're doing and who you're doing it to
I don't take no pills to kill the pain 'cause they ain't never
told me the truth
I don't smoke 'cause I never get high enough to get over you

(Oh no)

I don't drink, 'cause I know my mind and every time I do
I just think about what you're doing and who you're doing it to
I don't take no pills to kill the pain 'cause they ain't never
told me the truth
I don't smoke 'cause I never get high enough to get over you, y eah
I don't smoke 'cause I never get high enough to get over you

I could never get that high if I tried

I don't smoke 'cause I'll never Get high enough to get over you, oh
Yeah, I don't smoke
