

One More Day

Lee Brice

The feeling just hit, where did the time get to?
Some 31 days on the road, one more show to do
I'm standing on the side of the stage, about to walk on I'll give them all that I have, Oh, then babe, I'm coming home

Give Me one more day baby
I'm almost on my way baby
I know how much you give
I know how much I take and I know that one more day feels so long and I feel it just as deep, honey just as strong I know I tend to get lost in this world I live in
But nothing out here satisfies, yeah baby I know what I'm missing

So give me one one more day baby
Yeah, I'm almost on my way baby
Yeah give me one more day baby
Yeah, I know how much you give
I know how much I take...

Yeah, the feeling just hit, where did the time get to?
I'm staring out a crowd, but when I close my eyes, All I see is you..
All I see is you.

Yeah-oooh-oooh-oooh-oooh-a-ohhhh
