

I Am You Are

Lee Hazlewood

I've written songs for and about many people, this one's for my daughter Debbie, who is about fourteen.

I am the sea, you are the wind that calms me when i storm.

I am the land, you are the tree I've loved since it was born.

I am the sky that holds the stars and love but only one.

I am the sea, I am the land, the sky, I am the world.

You are the wind, the tree, the star, you are my little girl.

I am the sky that holds the stars and love's but only one.

I am the sea, I am the land, the sky, I am the world.

You are the wind, the tree, a star, you are my little girl
