

Front Cut

Leighton Meester

I'm to fly to be all up
in this line boy,
I should get a front cut
I should get a front cut

I'm to fly to be all up
in this line boy,
I should get a front cut
I should get a front cut

Why you all up in this line
When you looking way to fine
These chicks ain't on your level
Ain't shit that they could tell you

You know you looking good
Doing what they wish they could
Plus you spend too much time in the gym
To be in line waiting behind him

And you giving out these bars
Shining brighter than these stars
Looking like a model too
So they all wanna model you

Talking and they staring
But you ain't even caring
Cause just one your earrings
Cost more than what they wearing

You're too fine to be waiting in a line girl
You should get a front cut
You should get a front cut

I'm to fly to be all up
in this line boy,
I should get a front cut
I should get a front cut

Oh, oooh, oooh.....

Cause who else be attracting
There boys are sitting here acting
Like they're money is stacking
Spending the show, they macting

It's us to get some open
Just from the fact they hoping
You know I got them flowing
So punk lift up that rope when

You see me coming throught
Not just me, my girlfriends too
You know what came to do
That's why we in front of you

Just from what we're flashing

We're in the highest fashion
Clueless girls out here asking
Why do we get to pass them

You're too fine to be waiting in a line girl

I'm to fly to be all up
in this line boy,
I should get a front cut

Ohh, oooh, ohhh.....

Don't tell me gotta wait in the line
I said fuck the front door
I should go in through the side
Why don't you lift up that rope to let through
All of these girls in my crew
Give me a drink or a few
I mean a bottle or two

We've been out here to damn long
And I hear Clint Sparks playing my song
Got my Valmont and my Louis Vitton's on You better hurry up, or I'll be gone

So don't tell me I gotta wait in the line
Because there's plenty other clubs that want me inside

If you ain't trying to wait in no line
Cause you know that you the shit
Put your hands in the sky

If you ain't trying to wait in no line
Cause you know that you the shit

If you ain't trying to wait in no line
Cause you know that you the shit

If you ain't trying to wait in no line
Cause you know that you the shit

You're too fine to be waiting in a line girl

I'm to fly to be all up
in this line boy,

Ohh, oooh, ooohh.....
