

Crazy 'cause I Believe

Len

Ya know what?
Sometimes you just get so damn tired
And things really ain't that cool
But it's normal, man
You can't let it slow up your pattern
Somedays the pressure can really be on you
And you might not know what to do about it
You might get a little clausterphobic,
Problems closin in on ya
But you just gotta relax, man
Plan your attack, man
I mean, we all got struggles
Though you can't win em all
Cause life is hard as granite for some of us
But you just gotta let it ride, man, and ride with it
Cause some things only happen when you let it
If you lose your head too fast, you might live to regret it
So listen, man, listen
So when you feel so way out
And you feel like there's no way out
You just gotta open your eyes, man, and rise
Sometimes you just gotta give thanks when you're walkin slanted
Ya can't take your blessings for granted
So keep a good focus, stay cool, stay true
And just let the sun shine right on through

So let the sun shine through
Oooh wake the eyes, the eyes that see
