

Enimigos / Enemies

letlive.

y si me encuentras sangrando llamo los vampiros ay mi hijos

if I started bleeding today call up every vampire you know I just wanted all my children, all my kids to know that.. if we are the faithful living, then we are the grateful dead put me in the bed and give me what I want I'm tired of the mattress we use it too often and I will wait for it I'll put you in the bed if that's what you want use your body to hammer the nails in my coffin

and I will wait for it

if we're playing musical chairs on the decks of titanic's you know all of us are racing for the seat nailed to the bow and I want all my kids to know that when I started drowning today everyone was diving in to know if we are the faithful living, then we are the great
