

Outrageous

Lights

I used to see love as an adventure
That wasn't part of the script I got
So, I never stepped outside the box
Yeah, That wasn't me

But, you came along and messed me up
You opened the doors, that I can't shut
And now, I forget the way I was
This I can feel, yeah

You're so damn outrageous
