

Cover My Face

Lilly Wood & The Prick

He welcomes me with his eyes closed
And I always let myself through the front door Think I may be afraid to take another hit

So i'm covering my face and everything else I can

He looks at me like he's never seen my face before and doesn't listen when I say how my day went And think he maybe afraid to feel something

so I'm covering my face and everything else I can

Maybe I'm wasting my time, maybe I'm wasting your time
too
but I' m glad to spend this time with you , you make me Cover My Face and everything else I have

I'm covering my face and everything else I can

I guess I should be thankful for meeting you at all Cos' see the way I feel , I never felt before and you should be ashamed , making me Cover My Face and everything else I can

Maybe I'm wasting my time, maybe I'm wasting your time
but I' m glad to spend this time with you , you make me Cover My Face and everything else I have

I am
covering my face and everything else I have

I am glad that I spend this time with you you make me Cover My Face and everything else I have

I am
covering my face and everything else I have you make me Cover My Face and everything else I have.
