

Rock Away Blind

Lindsey Buckingham

For your love, I must be on time
Wait for hours alone by your shrine
Your bark is worse than my bite
I rock away, rock away, rock away, rock away blind
Rock away, rock away, rock away, rock away blind

I see clues that you leave behind
White or blue, I know it can't be mine
I want to look for what I might find
I rock away, rock away, rock away, rock away blind

Freedom is someone to know
There is no right or wrong anymore
Cast your fate we've all found away
As they say, it's another good day

I keep walking on this heart of mine
I could go crazy without even trying
Fleeing the scene of the crime
I rock away, rock away, rock away, rock away blind
