

I Don't Miss You Anymore

Lisa Ekdahl

I don't miss you anymore
Unless the moonlight's great
Or on a starry night
I just might miss you
A little bit
I don't miss you anymore
Unless it's a cloudy day
Or if the sun shines bright
I just might miss you
Now and then
I don't miss you
'Till the morning fills the air
Or the afternoon is fair
Or the evening light is barely there
I don't miss you
And you know is not a lie
Unless the moon is floating
High above
A perfect midnight sky
I don't miss you
'Till the morning fills the air
Or the afternoon is fair
Or the evening light is barely there
I don't miss you
And you know is not a lie
A perfect midnight sky
I don't miss you anymore
Unless I close my eyes
Especially open wide
I see
I miss you every day
