Happy Anniversary

Little River Band

Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind

I'm so happy for you baby
Now that you've found somebody new
I see it in your eyes
Lord, it's no surprise
What he can do for you

But when I look back baby When I look back to what we had And I know I'm countin' good times But there were just as many bad

And so I wish you Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind

There's a lesson here to learn When your baby ups and leaves you Carry on, don't feel concerned Even though you're so much in love You need a little help from above, oh

Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind

Oh, ain't no foolin' with you baby Only the words are hard to find You got me tremblin' at the knees Answer won't you please Before I lose my mind

This is our fifth year, baby And it feels like I'm in jail, Lord I'm holding on to this card Can't seem to get it in the mail And the card reads

Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind Happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind

Ooh yeah, happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind Ah yeah, happy anniversary, baby Got you on my mind

Oh, have a happy anniversary 'Cause I've got you on my mind

Always on my mind
