

You Are the World

Live

If you've ever known love,
If you've ever known peace,
If you've ever known joy,
Make sure that you are on time.

If you've ever known war,
If you've ever known pain,
If you've ever said no,
Make sure that you are on time,
You are on time,
You are on time,
We are on time.

For you are the world.

Fighting, Mating, Warring,
You are all this now.
Be aware, not scared.
Look at me now.
Silence.
I say,
You are the world.
