

Beat (I Can Feel Your Heart)

Lonestar

Innocence, our eyes meet
Pounding chest skips a beat
Suddenly I cant breathe
Two souls collide from 20 feet
A fire ignites and I believe
I believe
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart beat
Face to face
Loaded grin
Fingertips touching skin
Without a word
Both giving in
Self control is wearing thin
Wondering where this night will end
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart beat yeah
Feel your heart
Speechless, serenity
Tangled blanket
I cant speak
So strongso sweetso close
I can feel your heart
And I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can feel your heart
I can
I can
I can feel your heart beat
