

You're the Reason Why

Lonestar

Walking through life without clouds above me
Never thought I'd find someone to love me
Lost in the crowd, never felt so lonely
And I really living and barely holding Onto a dream of what could be

It only took one taste of your kiss
Now I know everything that I've missed
My heart is beating for the first time

Anticipating your every touch
Intoxicating me with your love
And I'm so high
And you're the reason why, oh

Walking on clouds and finally laughing
I never believed that this could happen
You found a place I never knew existed
Two souls embrace with no resistance
Just in time, you've saved my life

It only took one taste of your kiss
Now I know everything that I've missed
My heart is beating for the first time

Anticipating your every touch
Intoxicating me with your love
And I'm so high
And you're the reason why
You're why

Oh, you're the reason why
You're the reason why, yeah

It only took one taste of your kiss
Now I know everything that I've missed
My heart is beating for the first time

Anticipating your every touch
Intoxicating me with your love
And I'm so so high
And you're the reason why
You're the reason why, yeah
