

Your Shoes Are The Star Of The Show

Louis XIV

Little town fairy with a see through skirt
Well, I'm watching from the 14th floor
And if you get the feeling that she wanna come up
There's a 1412 on my door

Oh, you know I like you so

When you wear them, and every one will know
That your shoes are the star of the show

Oh, sweet little girl with your high school coat
And your socks pulled up knee high
When you walk down the street
All the cocks in the park
Turn their heads when you walk by
Oh, you know I like you so

When you wear them, and every one will know
That your shoes are the star of the show
Yeah you wear them, and every one will know
That your shoes are the star of the show

Wear those shoes
Love those shoes
Wear those shoes
Love those shoes
