

Sometimes

Love Battery

If I had time to think
I'd probably lose control
I'd probably see the truth
I'd probably love you all

Sometimes
Sometimes
Sometimes
Sometimes I can stop the world

Sometimes I've got religion!
God's got such harmonies!
If I could have this bottle!
I'd give it to you for free!

Sometimes!
Sometimes!
Sometimes!
Sometimes I can stop the world

Now that sadness is showing
Beside you it's all growing

God damn it, this pale blue shirt!
It's the only one I could find!
Now, I feel like dirt!
How can they be so kind ?

Sometimes!
Sometimes!
Sometimes!
Sometimes I can stop the world

(I doubt these lyrics are right, but it was the best I could do trying to understand what he was saying)
