

I am what I don't know

Lovers

I said wait in the garden,
then I left you a lion, I know.
I said stay with the lion,
she's tame and she's trying. I know.
And it wasn't so.
I am what I don't know.
I am sorry though.

I said I'll be a bird,
and sing every word I know.
I said aw who could I hurt,
just a sweet singing bird. I know.
And it wasn't so.
I am what I don't know.
I am sorry though.

I said meet in the square,
there'll be vandals there but I won't.
I said my heart is your home,
there's no guard, there's no moat at all.
And it wasn't so.
I am what I don't know.
I am sorry though.
