

Cyborgs Vs. Robots

Ludo

You don't understand
Unless you reprogram.
I try to assimilate
You still intimidate.

But your iron fist will never knock me down
'Cause I'm powered
By a conscious right to conduct my life
Without fear.

You are ten percent
Thought without dissent
The rest is washed away
You cyborg of the state.

You will never see
Such sweet autonomy
As to stray it all
From your protocol, But

Your iron fist will never knock me down
'Cause I'm powered
By a conscious right to conduct my life
Without fear.
Your tyranny burns my circuitry
And I won't stand by.
I know my rights and I will fight, fight, fight,
Yeah...

You're scanning the room
For targets to consume
But your pulse is loud and clear
You persecute in fear.
