Dream's deep heat, teasing my mind Sleep peels sweet, stealing my sighs She breathes deep when he's inside Dream's deep heat poisons my mind

Inside me, there's a separate world It's winning and I'm losing control I'm coming but my eyes are closed I'm coming but it leaves me cold

Night's bright lights dim in the day Blind eyes smile at you today I find, I'm falling away My eyesight's never the same

Inside me, there's a separate girl
She's winning and I'm losing control
She coming but my eyes are closed
She's coming but I wake up and it leaves me cold

Inside me, there's a separate girl
She's winning and I'm losing control
She coming but my eyes are closed
She's coming but I wake up and it leaves me cold
