Lydia

And we don't have to be so far
'Cause all she wants is just to float away from here
Nobody speak, I've been meaning to tell you something
It's "Baby, would you call love a calm drug?"

Stay up, my love
'Cause you've been dreaming while we've been sleeping
And stay up, my love
'Cause you've been dreaming, oh we've been sleeping

And so we sing and sing, but nobody's listening
It's sad enough that you've been loving without your smile
So let's mix it over ours
And it's deep in your sound
You fill your lungs with this frame

And it's all if you ever are strange
And it's counting with my face's strange
And we like this now, I don't understand
Ignoring what this means on your dreams
And every day...

Stay up, my love
'Cause you've been dreaming while we've been sleeping
And stay up, my love
'Cause you've been dreaming, oh we've been sleeping
